1

Lay two planks flat and parallel, then two more across them. Repeat up to eight rows: this is the box, built in crossed courses.

2

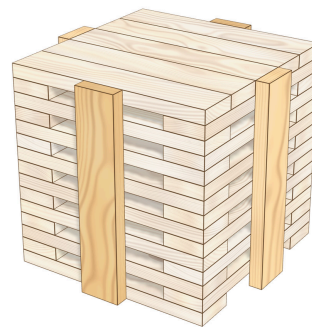

Carry on with six more rows, still crossing the Kapla. This is the lid of your gift.

3

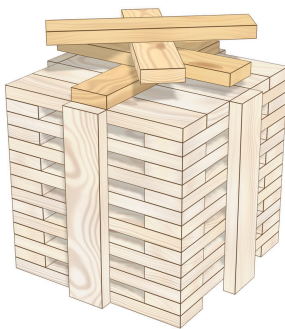

Close the top with five planks laid flat, tight against one another.

4

In the middle of each side, stand one plank up against the box. It reaches exactly the top: this is the ribbon.

5

On top, lay two planks in a cross in line with the ribbon, then two more at an angle. This is the bow. Your gift is ready to give!

BRAVO!
